Check-in: How have your mood and stress levels been lately? Identify some of the factors—both positive and negative—that have impacted how you are feeling. What has been the most helpful practice in addressing your mental health? Is there one thing that you can commit to doing more of to help yourself?